Iasonas Kampanis was born in 1985 in Athens (Greece), where he currently lives and works. He studied silversmithing and jewelry design at the Mokume Institute in Thessaloniki. Since 2007, he is working with painting, photography, digital media and scenographic works.

His work focuses on animistic origins in Mediterranean culture, addressing anthropocentric constructs that have severed human kinships with the natural world and fractured the sense of interconnectedness.

In 2020 he received the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Artist Fellowship Award by ARTWORKS.

He has collaborated and exhibited, among others, with the Museum of Cycladic Art, Aphrodite Gonou, Rebecca Camhi Gallery, Marina Fokidis, Breeder Gallery, Wilhelmina's Gallery, Citronne Galleries, the 61st Thessaloniki International Film Festival and MoMus, KEIV project space, Victoria Square Project, kunsthallekleinbasel, architect Pulcheria Tzova, Onassis Stegi, director Maria Gaitanidi, actress Stacy Martin, Islington Arts Factory, Bishopsgate Institute, Lubomirov/Angus Hughes Gallery, Ligne Roset, Design Exchange magazine, London Print Studio, Christie's Head of Prints & Multiples Murray Macaulay, Teloglion Art Foundation, choreographer Irina Osterberg, and zoologist Desmond Morris.

He has also been engaged in traditional printmaking, Byzantine murals, film and theater productions, and educational programs.
